Mission: Sandford International School educates students to become effective world citizens who will excel in critical inquiry, creative thinking, clear communication, and commitment to others.

Ethiopia's Position in Africa

Sandford International School

Sandford is a private coeducational day school, offering an English language educational program for students from age 4 to 18 to the national and international communities of Addis Ababa.

History

Sandford International School was founded in 1947 and in 1949 moved to its current location. In 2001, SIS changed its name from Sandford English Community School to Sandford International School to reflect more effectively its international character with a student body representing over 50 nations.

School Governance

Sandford is registered as a non-profit charitable institution. Elected representatives from the parent community serve on the Board of Governors. The Board is comprised of three members of the Ethiopian community and two members of the expatriate community. There are also two representatives from the Ethiopian Ministry of Education and Charities & Societies Agency.

Calendar/Academic Reports

The school year commences in August and ends in June of the following year. School is in session for 36 weeks, and a total of not less than 180 days. The school year at Sandford is divided into three terms and a written report and/or grade card is issued each term.

Faculty

The faculty at Sandford International School are recruited from all over the world. Currently faculty come from Australia, Canada, Ethiopia, Ghana, India, Ireland, Jamaica, Kenya, Netherlands, Spain, United States, and United Kingdom.

Student body

The student body at Sandford is made of students from 50 nations including Ethiopia, United States of America, Canada, United Kingdom, The Netherlands, Kenya, Uganda, Italy, Pakistan, India, and several other nations. There are currently 980 students on the roll – approximately 580 in the Primary School and 500 in the Secondary School. In this year's graduating class there are 65 seniors, Year 13.

Extra-Curricular Activities

Sandford runs an after-school activities program as well as varsity and junior varsity boys' and girls' soccer, volleyball, athletics, cross-country, tennis, and basketball; Sandford is a member of the International Schools Sports Association of Addis Ababa. Sandford is also an approved center to offer the Duke of Edinburgh/International Award.

Curriculum

The Primary Curriculum at the School follows both the Numeracy/Literacy Strategies of the English National Curriculum and the International Primary Curriculum (IPC) until Year 6.

Sandford International School offers Ethiopian National Examination in Years 8 for our Ethiopian National students.

Rank in class

Sandford International School does not assign ranks to students. It is the goal of the teachers to help each Student actualize her/his potential.
